15TH ANNUAL MORTON DEUTSCH AWARDS FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

CALL FOR STUDENT PAPERS

BACKGROUND
Morton Deutsch, one of the world’s preeminent psychologists, made significant contributions over the many years of his career in the areas of conflict resolution and social justice. The Morton Deutsch International Center for Cooperation and Conflict Resolution (MD-ICCCR) at Teachers College, Columbia University, is sponsoring the 15th annual Morton Deutsch Award for an Outstanding Graduate Student Paper on Social Justice.

We are excited to announce that the 2019 Morton Deutsch Awards for Social Justice will be included in the Teachers College Academic Festival on April 13, 2019.

GUIDELINES
A trophy award plus $500.00 will be awarded to a graduate student within the Columbia University system for an outstanding paper related to social justice.

- The paper may address the issue of social justice in any context with a clear conceptual framework and from any disciplinary perspective.

Papers will be evaluated on:
- Degree of innovative thinking and sound analysis
- Recommendations for remedying identified situations
- Contribution to scholarship, practice, and policy

Papers should be 20 to 30 pages in length (send as a .doc or .docx format, double-spaced, 1” margins, Times New Roman, 12pt font)

Papers should be emailed as an (MSWord) attachment to icccr@tc.edu.

DEADLINE
Papers are due March 5th 2019 (by 11:59 EST)
